hair care, shaving and grooming to enter growing women's hair accessories markets in Europe and Latin America.

"Our successful launch in the women's hair accessory market is among a number of global categories Remington® is entering to advance our strategy of rapid organic growth in higher margin and faster growing consumables markets over the next several years," said Dave Lumley, Chief Executive Officer of Spectrum Brands Holdings. "We are investing in resources to capitalize on this significant growth platform, leveraging our Spectrum Value Model approach of 'same performance/less price' to gain distribution in both stores and online, and working hard to help our retail partners grow their category shares."

Extending the Remington® brand to the consumable hair accessory category further enhances Remington's position as one-stop shopping for hair styling for all ages. According to Drew Fiorenza, Remington® Global Vice President, "Our hair accessory product development has a strong emphasis on executing fashion and trend and always with a focus on winning the value position. With our brand positioning of 'How the World Gets Ready,' we have a unique opportunity for cross promoting our hair accessories with complementary segments of our business, such as hair care appliances, and even with other adjacent beauty categories by co-merchandising in stores and offering in-pack trial samples or coupons for discounts with purchase.

"Our approach is to create a fun, engaging experience for the consumer, making the product the hero of the proposition and exciting the female consumer with the most trend-forward fabrications, colors and materials at a compelling consumer value," he added. "For the female consumer, feeling confident and beautiful is a 360-degree experience, and Remington® is committed to making hair accessories an important part of that."

As Remington® expands its global market position in women's hair accessories, Fiorenza said, "Remington® is excited to be able to offer consumers and our retail partners a total hair care solution. We will continue our focus on innovation that matters to the consumer and on bringing exciting, fashion-forward items to this category at a value price position, which has proven to be a successful formula for Remington® and its retail partners worldwide."
