Item 8.01. Other Events.

On November 30, 2017, Fidelity & Guaranty Life (“FGL”; NYSE: FGL), a former majority owned subsidiary of HRG Group, Inc. (“HRG”; NYSE: HRG), filed a Current Report on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission which announced the completion of FGL’s merger with CF Corporation and its related entities (collectively, the “CF Entities”) pursuant to its previously disclosed Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “FGL Merger Agreement”). Pursuant to the FGL Merger Agreement, except for certain shares specified in the FGL Merger Agreement, each issued and outstanding share of common stock of FGL was automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive $31.10 in cash, without interest. Accordingly, CF Corporation is acquiring FGL for a total of approximately $1.835 billion in cash, plus the assumption of $405 million of existing debt. HRG will receive approximately $1.462 billion in connection with the closing of the merger. For more information, interested parties should read FGL’s announcements and public filings regarding the foregoing.

In addition, on November 30, 2017, Front Street Re (Delaware) Ltd. (“Front Street”), a wholly owned subsidiary of HRG, sold to the CF Entities all of the issued and outstanding shares of Front Street Re Cayman Ltd. and Front Street Re Ltd. pursuant to a previously disclosed Share Purchase Agreement. The purchase price for the sale was $65.0 million, subject to reduction for customary transaction expenses. In addition, $6.5 million of the purchase price was deposited in escrow for a period of 15 months to support any indemnification claims that might be made (if any) against Front Street by the CF Entities.

Finally, as previously disclosed, on May 24, 2017, HRG, FS Holdco II Ltd. (“FS Holdco”) and the CF Entities entered into an agreement (the “338 Agreement”) pursuant to which the CF Entities agreed that FS Holdco may, at its option, cause the relevant CF Entity and FS Holdco to make a joint election under Section 338(h)(10) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, with respect to the FGL Merger and the deemed share purchases of FGL’s subsidiaries (the “338 Tax Election”). Pursuant to the 338 Agreement, if FS Holdco elects to make the 338 Tax Election, FS Holdco and/or CF Corporation will be required to make a payment for the election to the other. More specifically, FS Holdco will be required to pay CF Corporation $30.0 million, plus the amount, if any, by which FGL’s and its subsidiaries’ incremental current tax costs that are attributable to such election exceed $6.0 million, and CF Corporation will be required to pay FS Holdco the amount, if any, by which FGL’s and its subsidiaries’ incremental current tax savings that are attributable to such election exceed $6.0 million. Pursuant to the 338 Agreement, FS Holdco may elect to exercise the 338 Tax Election at any time until 10 business days after final calculation of such incremental tax costs or savings, as the case may be, and it currently expects to exercise such election within such period. If FS Holdco exercises the 338 Tax Election, as of September 30, 2017, HRG expects to receive an estimated $9.6 million net payment from CF Corporation. Nonetheless, there can be no assurance that FS Holdco will make the election and/or that HRG will receive the expected benefits of such election. In addition, the estimated payment described herein is preliminary as of September 30, 2017 and subject to change, and HRG does not undertake any obligation to update such estimate.

Forward Looking Statements:

“Safe Harbor” Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: This document contains, and certain oral statements made by our representatives from time to time may contain, forward-looking statements, including those statements 338 Tax Election or anticipated benefits therefrom. Neither HRG nor any of its affiliates intends to disclose any developments with respect to the foregoing until such time that it determines otherwise in its sole discretion or as required by applicable law. Forward-looking statements also include information concerning possible or assumed future distributions from subsidiaries, other actions, events, results, strategies and expectations and are identifiable by use of the words “believes,” “expects,” “intends,” “anticipates,” “plans,” “seeks,” “estimates,” “projects,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “might,” or “continues” or similar expressions.
